Message from the Authors

Katie Souza - Those who have had traumatic experiences often recognize they are dealing with emotional wounds; however, every person breathing has emotional wounds. Some are of their own making, and others are because a person in authority over them didn't respond to them in the manner they needed, so hurt, offense, and bitterness set in without them being aware of it. Even when we are aware of our wounded souls, we don't know what to do to heal them, so the wound remains, festers, and becomes poisonous. We are told in 3 John 1:2, "Beloved, I pray that you prosper in all things and be in health just as your soul prospers." For many, their poor physical health is a reflection of their soul's poor health.

When people's souls are wounded, they reach out to their idols to comfort their souls. That is why I partnered with Dr. Myles to write the book, Idols Riot. The Lord showed me that each of us has idols in our soul that riot, and the outcome of that is the manifestation of behavior that hurts the individual and others, thus, creating new soul wounds...until we learn how to break the cycle.

Francis Myles - The revelation God gave me on evil altars has been a missing piece in our total defeat of the enemy. Unbeknownst to us, we have all built evil altars in our souls that have given the enemy the legal right to operate in our lives because with every altar, there is a demonic idol being worshiped. Until we destroy the altar, thus evicting the evil spirit, we are never truly free. Joining forces with Katie provided the missing link. If we destroy altars without healing the soul, the soul will just create a new altar, and the cycle continues. But when we do both – heal the soul and destroy the altar – that is when we experience freedom and the prosperous soul Apostle John spoke of in his epistle.

Our prayer is that this course will equip you not only to destroy all evil altars in your bloodline but also to give you what you need to maintain that healing throughout the rest of your life.
